Notes

- Preliminary Round Matches were selected by a random drawing on October 3, 2009. This round will consist of five (5) matches, which will determine the automatic advancers to the Quarter Finals or 2nd Round. To facilitate an even number of teams in the 2nd Round of matches the Top Loser (losing team with highest points scored) from the Preliminary Round (1st Round) will also advance.
- Where two or more teams tie for Top Loser, a Best of Five Match will be held to determine the advancing team. Where that best of five results in a tie, questions will continue to the tied teams until a single team exceeds its competitors by a clear margin of points after facing an equal number of questions. Each question will be awarded one (1) point and the team will be allowed ten (10) seconds to respond. Incorrectly answered questions will not pass to competing teams. Teams will not lose points for incorrect answers.
- From the 2nd Round of Matches of six (6) teams, three (3) will automatically advance and the top loser to ensure an even number of teams in the Semi-Final or 3rd Round. Ties for Top Loser will be treated as above.
- The winners of the semi-final round will advance to the final to contest for the 1st and 2nd places. The losers of the semi-final round will contest for 3rd place.
